- e) Comments or jokes about a person's disability, pregnancy, sexuality, age or religion
- f) Repeated questions about one's personal life
- g) Belittling someone's work or contribution in a meeting
- h) Threats, insults or abuse
- i) Offensive obscene language
- j) Obscene telephone calls, unsolicited letters, faxes and emails

3.6 Non-Verbal Harassment

Examples of non-verbal harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Leering (e.g. staring at a woman's breasts)
- b) Putting offensive material on notice boards, computer screen savers and emails
- c) Wolf whistling
- d) Nude or pornographic posters
- e) Displaying sexist or racist cartoons or literature
- f) Demoting, failing to promote, or transferring someone because they refuse requests for sexual favours
- g) Following someone home from work
- h) Standing very close to someone or unnecessarily leaning over them
- i) Mimicking someone with a disability
- j) Practical jokes that are unwelcome
- k) Ignoring someone, or being cold and distant to them
- l) Crude hand or body gestures

3.7 Physical Harassment

Examples of physical harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Unwelcome physical contact such as kissing, hugging, pinching, patting, touching, or brushing up against a person
- b) Indecent or sexual assault or attempted assault
- c) Hitting, pushing, shoving, spitting, or throwing objects at a person
- d) Unfastening a person's attire

4. Policy Principles

Nomi College will not accept any form of discrimination and we will apply the following principles in support of access and equity:

4.1 Access and Equity Principles

- a) Nomi College abides by access and equity principles.
- b) Nomi College will respect a client's right to privacy, confidentiality and be sensitive to client needs.

RTO Number: 31518	CRICOS Number: 03569A	Author : Nomi College
Version number : 1.0		Page 3 of 9

- c) Nomi College provides equal opportunity for all learners and is responsive to the individual needs of clients whose gender, pregnancy, race, marital status, sexuality, age, family/carer responsibilities, disability, transgender, political conviction, cultural or ethnic background, linguistic background, religious belief, geographic location, socio-economic background, employment/unemployment, imprisonment may present a barrier to access, participation and achievement of suitable outcomes.
- d) At enrolment, clients will be asked to identify personal needs or circumstances that may exist and for which they may require additional support (See Enrolment Policy).
- e) Nomi College will ensure that all staff, employees, and contractors have access to the information and support needed to prevent discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimization, and vilification or to deal with it appropriately if it occurs.
- f) Nomi College seeks to create a learning environment where all students are respected and can develop their full potential.
- g) All clients are given fair and reasonable opportunity to attend and complete training.
- h) All staff are given fair and reasonable opportunity to participate in relevant decision making processes and the allocation of resources and services as required to fulfil their duties and responsibilities.
- i) Deficiencies will be investigated to determine whether a breach or policy deficiency exists. Should a discrepancy be proven, the impact of that breach or deficiency will be identified along with how the policy should be amended to eliminate the breach or deficiencies in the future.
- j) All perceived deficiencies in the Access and Equity Policy are to be documented, assessed and reviewed by the Compliance Manager.
- k) Nomi College will demonstrate its commitment by:
 - i. Selecting students according to a fair and non-discriminatory process
 - ii. Making its training relevant for a diverse student population
 - iii. Providing suitable access to facilities and resources
 - iv. Providing appropriate support services
 - v. Providing appropriate complaints procedures
 - vi. Consulting with relevant industry groups
 - vii. Raising staff, contractor and student awareness of equity issues.

4.2 Equal Opportunity

Nomi College is an equal opportunity company and does not discriminate against or favour target groups in either recruiting or training, unless prescribed by funding contracts.

Target Groups are defined as:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders;
- People with a disability;
- People from non-English speaking backgrounds;
- People in transition and other special groups (i.e. people re-entering the workforce, long term unemployed, sole parents, people with literacy problems, and those who have been institutionalised);
- Women;
- People from regionally isolated communities.

4.3 Special Needs/Considerations

- a) Clients intending to enrol for training with Nomi College are requested prior to enrolment to advise Nomi College if they have any disability, physical or other impairment which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake training and assessment.
- b) Clients are encouraged to discuss with Nomi College any 'special needs' and/or 'reasonable adjustments' to the study environment which they consider are necessary or would assist them in the performance of their studies.
- c) Nomi College, in collaboration with the Client, will assess the potential for the Client to successfully complete the training which may include flexible delivery options to optimise the ease and benefit of the Clients learning. However, no compromise to the integrity of the assessment against competency will be allowed.
- d) Clients with a disability are required to have the ability to fulfil the core requirements of the units of Competence to attain the relevant award. However, it is recognised that flexibility in arrangements may need to be implemented.

4.4 Language, Literacy and Numeracy

- a) Each Training Package sets a minimum requirement in language, literacy and numeracy skills of learners, with which Nomi College must abide.
- b) Nomi College makes appropriate concessions for language, literacy and numeracy issues of clients where these concessions do not compromise the requirements of the relevant Training Package and the integrity, equity and fairness of the assessment.
- c) Where a Client is deemed, either prior to enrolment or throughout the training program, to possess a lower level of language, literacy or numeracy than is the minimum requirement for the requirements of the Training Package, Nomi College will provide appropriate advice and support to the Client regarding further learning options. At times, further language or literacy development or remedial assistance may be required to be completed prior to the continuation or completion of the Client's course of study.

4.5 Harassment

- a) Harassment will not be tolerated at Nomi College. If harassment occurs, the person responsible will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Disciplinary action will be taken against any staff or client involved in such behaviour. This may include termination of employment and the removal of the client from the training course.
- b) Serious cases of harassment may constitute a criminal offence.
- c) Nomi College will not tolerate behaviour which is considered to be sexual harassment and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.

4.6 Bullying and Violence

- a) Nomi College will not tolerate bullying or violent behaviour and expects all staff, contractors and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- b) Nomi College recognises bullying and violence demeans and infringes the rights of individuals and groups, damaging the work and learning environment.

4.7 Vilification

- a) Nomi College will not tolerate behaviour that vilifies another person and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.

4.8 Complaints

- a) The College encourages informal resolutions of discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimization, and vilification grievances in the first instance, as close to the source as possible, with the option of conciliation or investigation of the complaint if necessary.
- b) Complaints will be investigated in a confidential manner and action will be taken to ensure that the discrimination/harassment stops. Appropriate warning or disciplinary action will be taken where harassment is found to have occurred.
- c) Those responsible for advising, conciliating, or investigating a complaint must act fairly and impartially; they must act without bias and avoid any conflict or interest. The respondent must be given a fair opportunity to know the case against him or her and to be given the opportunity to make a considered response.
- d) All staff, clients, and contractors involved with the Nomi College complaint procedures will be treated with respect and courtesy. Enquiries and complaints will be dealt with in a sensitive, equitable, fair, and confidential manner. All attempts will be made to deal with matters expeditiously while ensuring all parties are provided with sufficient time to prepare and/or respond.

- e) The College acknowledges that it is of paramount importance and in the best interests of all parties that confidentiality is maintained during these procedures.
- f) Nomi College encourages the reporting of behaviour that breaches an equal opportunity policy, but will not tolerate vexatious or frivolous complaints.

4.9 Victimization

- a) In order for complaints to be brought forward, complainants must feel secure in the knowledge that the Nomi College procedures will be followed without fear of reprisal.
- b) Nomi College will not victimise or treat any person unfairly for making a harassment complaint.
- c) Nomi College will not tolerate behaviour of the victimisation of another person and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- d) Any complaint of victimisation will be treated in the same manner as a complaint of discrimination, sexual harassment, or vilification.

5. Nomi College Responsibilities

Nomi College has a legal and moral obligation to provide equal opportunity in an environment free from discrimination for staff, contractors, and clients to ensure that discrimination/harassment does not occur in the workplace.

Nomi College will:

- Maintain policies and procedures for equal opportunities for all staff, contractors and clients;
- Disseminate policies and procedures to staff, contractors and clients;
- Examine all policies and practices, as they affect staff, contractors, and clients to ensure the elimination of discrimination and harassment;
- Ensure that there is no discrimination against any individual client or group of clients or staff in access to facilities, products, and services;
- Educate staff and contractors on the general goals and philosophy of equal opportunity together with the rationale for policies and practices that are adopted;
- Eliminate sexist and other discriminatory language from all publications and discourage the use of such language in all printed material and in the speech of its staff, contractors, and clients;
- Establish and maintain mechanisms to deal with complaints.

5.1 Director Responsibilities

Nomi College Director and Managers are responsible for client equity.

The Director will not condone nor engage in discriminatory/harassing behaviour.

The Director is responsible for ensuring that all staff are aware of this policy and that complaints will be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the Complaints and Appeals Policy.

The Director(s) and Manager(s) are to ensure staff act according to this policy and that all clients are made aware of their rights and responsibilities pursuant to this policy.

The Director will maintain the confidentiality of all complaints. If the Director feels that they are not the appropriate person to deal with the complaint, they will refer the matter to either a member of the management team or an external independent party for review and/or action.

5.2 Staff, Contractors and Clients Responsibilities

Nomi College staff, contractors, and clients have the responsibility to:

- Act to prevent harassment, discrimination, and victimization against others;
- Respect differences among other staff, clients, and contractors, such as cultural and social diversity;
- Treat people fairly, without discrimination, harassment, or victimization;
- Respect the rights of others;
- Respect people’s rights to privacy and confidentiality;
- Refuse to join in with these behaviours;
- Supporting the person in saying no to these behaviours;
- Acting as a witness if the person being harassed decides to lodge a complaint;
- Observe site rules or behaviour guidelines set by Nomi College Trainers/Assessors;
- Behave in a manner that does not interfere with the learning of others, and
- Conduct themselves in a responsible manner while in training;
- Ensure the rights of all clients to have their say, balanced with the responsibility to listen to others and allow others to have their say.

If a Nomi College staff, contractor or client feels harassed, bullied, or otherwise a victim of unwelcome behaviour, the staff, contractor, or client is encouraged to inform the person that the behaviour is unwanted, unacceptable, and/or offensive. If the staff, contractor, or client feels unable to approach the person, or if the behaviour continues following their request that the behaviour ceases, the Director Nomi College should be contacted.
